best to have it taken

We entreat, then, all the friends of Liberty, and the foes of Slavery, every where, in the South as at the North,—in Europe as in America,—philosophers as well as Christians, Catholics no less than Protestants, to subscribe to a fund and a mode of expenditure which prepares the way before every sect, every party, every association; which makes all other men's anti-slavery labors light; and which has, for six and twenty years, been laying the foundations of many generations, so as to exclude slavery from American institutions, and secure to posterity those blessings of liberty which the last generation passed away without enjoying.

The undersigned, while asking the favor of their subscribers' company, on their customary Anniversary occasion, are impelled by the goodness and the grandeur of the enterprise,—by its indispensable nature, by the universal and fundamental character of its principles,—to entreat also the assistance of all one which it will be worth crossing the ocean to participate in. And while thanking our European friends for their generous coöperation of last year with America, we ask its continuance yet a little longer;—till a spirit of devotedness adequate to this great world-enterprise shall have been here awakened.

From this day forward through the year we begin to arrange our plans, our organizing efforts, and economic means, greater or smaller as the case may be, to meet this great national claim: and we desire all who would see slavery abolished, and truth, honour, peace, liberty and safety in righteousness restored, to meet us at its close, for cheer, counsel, sacrifice, resolve, and generous co-operation.

MARIA WESTON CHAPMAN,

MARY MAY,

LOUISA LORING,

ELIZA LEE POLLEN,

L. MARIA CHILD,

HENRIETTA SARGENT,

In a year when Americans find themselves citizens of a country where the African slave trade is going on, and slave-hunting unforbidden, and sheltering the fugitive indicted as a crime, and the leading religious and political influences so dead to this public shame as to discountenance legislative reform, we are confident that we have only to open our subscription in order to be becomingly and efficaciously sustained by the awakening virtue of the people, in the enterprise to which our lives are given.

We entreat, then, all the friends of Liberty, and the foes of Slavery, every where, in the South as at friends. Or if you chose to have the advertisement prepared in joint, thus—

"The Ladies of Heymouth Lauding ask the favour of ~~your~~^{their friends} company, at ~~the~~^{with their friends} their Fair & tea-party & ^{little} social dancing party, on the — the — & the —
of October at Mr. Wallis' Hall — the paper could then be taken & the words
"you" & "your family substituted, before they were struck off on the note paper. Thus we should be saved the trouble of writing any thing but the "Dear Mrs So & So"
